

BIO

A Sister of St. Therese of the Child Jesus of Buea, Sister Mary Ole Kombe is currently serving at the Catholic University of Buea (CUIB) as Vice President for Institutional Advancement and Development

Sr. Mary has a background in Theology, Spiritual Formation and Education. She holds a Master's Degree in Religious Sciences and diploma in human development/leadership. Prior to joining CUIB, she served for twelve years as the Vicar general and the following six years as Superior General of the Sisters of St. Therese, Diocese of Buea; Prior to that she was the Principal of the prestigious college Christ The King College, Tiko for eleven years; teacher at the John Paul II Institute of Theology (JOPASIT); Registrar of Examination for the Secondary Schools in the Diocese of Buea; Project Coordinator for the Diocese of Buea; Secretary and President of the Conference of English Speaking-Religious of the Ecclesiastical Province of Bamenda (CESR) now known as Conference of Religious of the Ecclesiastical Province of Bamenda (CREPB) and Formation Director in her Congregation.

As a leader, Sr. Mary believes in the call to service. She brings her access to intuition, and foresight, long time experience in leadership, as well as an understanding of pragmatic measurements of outcomes to support CUIB's mission in "preparing professional servant leaders with moral and spiritual values to contribute to the sustainable development of their communities". Engaging in what is relevant to realizing the mission and vision of CUIB is crucial to the leadership team.

